A Prayer for My Son

Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory.

Build me a son whose wishes will not take the place of deeds; a son who will know Thee — and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge.

Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let him learn to stand up in the storm; here let him learn compassion for those who fail.

Build me a son whose heart will be clear, whose goals will be high; a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men; one who will reach into the future, yet never forget the past.

And after all these things are his, give him, I pray, enough of a sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, and the meekness of true strength.

Then I, his father, will dare to whisper, “I have not lived in vain.”

High School wrestling: City duals and Holmen vs. Melrose-Mindoro/G-E-T showdown signify big night

Todd Werner, left, competes with Aquinas' Albert Flottmeyer during last season's city duals at Logan. Werner competed for Central last season and is a captain for the Logan/Central co-op this season, while Flottmeyer returns for the Blugolds. The seventh installment of the city duals begins today at 5 p.m.

Doug Leclair spent the summer and fall months preparing for a new experience as a wrestling coach.

The basics, of course, would be the same for someone with such a long association with the program at Logan High School.

But adding a new group of wrestlers from another school when Central's program collapsed led to many questions he'd have to answer well before the current season got started.

One issue that was going to be impacted was the city duals event that began in 2012.

The seventh installment of that event will take place tonight with three teams instead of four after Logan and Central combined.

CITY DUALS AT LOGAN HIGH SCHOOL

Aquinas vs. Onalaska, 5 p.m. Logan/Central vs. Onalaska, then Aquinas vs. Logan/Central follow upon dual completions

COLLEGE/HIGH SCHOOL AT UW-L

Holmen vs. Melrose-Mindoro/G-E-T, 6:30 p.m.; UW-La Crosse vs. UW-Platteville, 6:30 p.m.

“We looked at it and thought when this all happened about adding West Salem(/Bangor) to stay at four teams, and that didn’t work out,” Leclair said. “So we’ll go with three, and I still think it will be a good thing for the teams involved.”

Logan/Central, Aquinas and Onalaska/Luther will wrestle each other in a series of duals that begins at 5 p.m. at Logan. Onalaska/Luther vs. Aquinas starts the event, and Aquinas vs. Logan/Central closes it.

The timing is good for Leclair’s team, which won a championship at the Osseo-Fairchild duals on Saturday. Logan/Central won five matches that day and hope to continue that momentum into a rare event in its home gymnasium.

In fact, tonight provides wrestling fans with a couple of good options. Holmen and Melrose-Mindoro/G-E-T will also meet in a dual at UW-La Crosse and compete simultaneously on a mat next to a WIAC dual between the Eagles and UW-Platteville.

That event begins at 6:30 p.m. at Mitchell Hall.

Leclair said he has 34 wrestlers on his roster and that 29 of them are from Logan. That means the projected involvement from Central is about what was expected when the co-op was announced.

“The city duals are still an option for us to have two matches in one night, hopefully in front of a little bigger crowd than they are used to seeing, and it’s something we want to continue,” Leclair said.

With four teams involved the first six times, each team wrestled three dual meets. Tonight, they cut to two and share the stage with wrestlers from youth programs in La Crosse and West Salem.

“It’s something to do to promote the sport, which has to be a priority,” Leclair said. “We had our Boys and Girls Club with about 50 kids, and we tried to find a program of similar size to match up with. We are hoping to get a match for around 40 kids.”

The night also promises to be uplifting for wrestlers at the programs that are involved. None of the three teams have won an MVC dual this season, and it provides them with legitimate chances to win — and grow — against familiar opponents.

High school sports roundup: La Crosse Aquinas boys basketball team takes down Holmen; Blugolds win city wrestling duals

WRESTLING
La Crosse city duals

Aquinas pulled off two MVC victories to emerge victorious at the Logan fieldhouse. The Blugolds beat Onalaska/Logan 51-24 to open the event and downed the Logan/Central co-op 39-32 to close it.

Carson Haag (126 pounds), Albert Flottmeyer (132), Andrew Topolski (170 and 182), Peter Riley (195) and Jack Horihan (220 and 285) all won twice for Aquinas.

Horihan improved to 17-2 and posted a big 8-7 win over L/C's Robert Snodgrass after moving up to 285.

Logan/Central beat Onalaska/Luther 67-12 in the middle dual.

Westby duals

WESTBY — Aquinas went 2-3, losing close duals to Westby (40-39) and Nekoosa (39-36).

Jack Horihan, Albert Flottmeyer, Nick Cambio and Andrew Topolski all went 4-1 for the Blugolds, whose wins were a 46-25 decision over Brookwood, and 36-33 victory over Riverdale.

High school wrestling: La Crosse Aquinas senior Jack Horihan having big season

Jack Horihan received quite the introduction to varsity wrestling when he was a freshman at Aquinas High School.

The Blugolds needed a 285-pounder to compete in a WIAA Division 3 regional meet, and Horihan accepted the challenge despite having to beef up to qualify for a spot in the bracket.

“He had to eat and drink to get there,” Aquinas coach Deke Stanek said. “He was a spot starter for us that year, and we used him to get a match here and there. Then we sent him out there at heavyweight.”

Horihan won one of three matches that day and was pinned when he wrestled for second.

But that was then, and this is now for Horihan, who didn’t start dabbling in the sport until he was a seventh-grader.

“He fell in love with the sport right away,” Stanek said of Horihan, who owns a 21-3 record while competing mostly at 220 pounds as a senior this season. “He has spent a lot of mat time outside of practice gaining the experience he needs.

“He isn’t necessarily doing anything different this year, but he’s finding his style and knows what makes him successful.”

Stanek said that means grinding out win after win with tried and true measures. Horihan can dominate opponents and has, but he has gained success by being aware of what needs to be done and finding a way to do it.

“He is fundamentally sound and not flashy or real explosive,” Stanek said. “He’s a grinder. He’s in fantastic condition, and he wears opponents down. He sees something he can do, and he’ll keep hitting and hitting it and hitting it until it works.”

That process helped Horihan score a one-point win over Logan/Central’s Robert Snodgrass (19-5) at the La Crosse city duals last week. The victory, which came on a takedown with 15 seconds left, propelled the Blugolds to a 39-32 win and 2-0 night.

“We saw moving him up as our best chance to win the dual,” Stanek said. “It was huge. We didn’t have the dual won after his match, but the momentum it provided our team made a difference.

“It pumped up our guys, and we won. Jack was the catalyst for that.”

Horihan has also made himself better by accepting challenges at 285 pounds.

He beat Snodgrass and lost a 5-1 match to Brookwood sophomore Trey Kaiser (21-4). His other losses have come to Holmen’s Jack Westcott (29-4) at 220 and to Cumberland’s Kole Adams in a match at the Northern Badger Invitational right after Christmas.

Adams is ranked 10th in Division 3, one spot ahead of Horihan, by Wisconsin Wrestling Online. Westcott is ninth in Division 1 at 220, and Kaiser received honorable mention in Division 3 at 285.

Adams pinned Horihan by capitalizing on position while Horihan tried to score a pin of his own.

“He had (Adams) on his back, but he got a little high,” Stanek said. “He was rolled through and lost that match. It was a learning experience.

WIAA INDIVIDUAL STATE WRESTLING MEET

WIAA state wrestling: La Crosse Aquinas senior Jack Horihan among semifinal qualifiers

Aquinas High School senior Jack Horihan waits for an opportune time to tie up with Winnebago Lutheran's Grant Manke during a WIAA Division 3 220-pound quarterfinal match at the Kohl Center in Madison. Horihan won 3-1 to advance to Friday night's semifinals.

MADISON -- Jack Horihan's confidence began to build after placing fifth at the Northern Badger Invitational during the middle of the wrestling season.

The Aquinas High School senior thought that performance was the one that made him believe he was capable of big things, and he added an accomplishment to that list Friday afternoon during the WIAA individual state meet at the Kohl Center in Madison.

Horihan is officially a Division 3 state semifinalist after recording a 3-1 quarterfinal victory over Winnebago Lutheran's Grant Manke on Friday afternoon.

Horihan (32-4), who is ranked fourth in the state, meets second-ranked Bryce Holderman (39-1) of Amherst on Friday night's semifinal round.

"At the beginning of the season, I just wanted to put myself in the position to have a chance to go to state, so I put in a lot of time at (La Crosse Area Wrestlers)," Horihan said. "Then, after the Northern Badger, I started to think I could do well if I got here."

Horihan stuck to his plan for Manke and executed it well. He pushed the action and maintained control.

"One of the things we knew was that he doesn't like to tie up," Horihan said. "So I wanted to tie up, tie up, tie up as much as I could."
