A Prayer for My Son

Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory.

Build me a son whose wishes will not take the place of deeds; a son who will know Thee — and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge.

Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let him learn to stand up in the storm; here let him learn compassion for those who fail.

Build me a son whose heart will be clear, whose goals will be high; a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men; one who will reach into the future, yet never forget the past.

And after all these things are his, give him, I pray, enough of a sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, and the meekness of true strength.

Then I, his father, will dare to whisper, “I have not lived in vain.”

Tomah 65, Aquinas 10

TOMAH — The Timberwolves' Colby Von Haden, competing at 220, pushed his record to 12-8 with a 3-0 win over Aquinas' Charlie Langberg. Tomah also received a decision from 145-pound Sam Linzmeier, who beat the Blugolds' Zack DeGroot 6-0.

Age, experience lift Tomah wrestlers past Aquinas

La Crosse Aquinas has a promising wrestling future, but Tomah has the older and wiser present.

The Timberwolves put their experience to good use Thursday to claim a 65-10 victory over Aquinas in a Mississippi Valley Conference dual at Tomah High School.

Tomah coach Jeff Von Haden appreciated coaching a match in which both teams filled all 14 weight classes. Aquinas' lineup included six freshman and just one senior, and Von Haden said age and experience were keys to the outcome.

"Aquinas is a young team, and we're a little bit more mature," Von Haden said. "I'm proud of my kids. I thought we took it to them tonight. I like the way we fight and battle and never give up."

The Timberwolves won 12 of the 14 matches and scored the first points in all 14. And while the Timberwolves had an experience edge, they also prevailed in two matches in which Aquinas sent out the older wrestler.

At 145 pounds, Tomah freshman Sam Linzmeier rolled junior Zach DeGroot into a second-period near fall en route to a 6-0 victory.

In the 182-pound match, sophomore Thor Lass defeated Aquinas' lone senior, Robert Uehling, with a lightning-fast takedown/pin combination that snapped a scoreless tie late in the first period.

The closest match was 220, where Tomah's Colby Von Haden defeated Aquinas' Charlie Langeberg 3-0. After a scoreless first period, Von Haden started on top and rolled Langeberg into a two-point near fall for the period's only points. Von Haden got an escape early in the third period, and the two wrestlers stayed neutral the rest of the match.

Hayden Larson (285) got the quickest pin of the match by dispatching Aquinas' Clay Berra in 47 seconds.

Other wrestlers getting pins for Tomah were Caden Griffin (106), Dawson Lambert (120), Nate Boulton (132), Owen Walters (138), Marques Fritsche (160) and Kaden Hericks (195).

Aquinas' only victories came at 126 and 152 pounds.

"I give Aquinas a lot of credit," Von Haden said. "They're getting better, and they have a lot of kids out."

Barring injury, Von Haden anticipates keeping all 14 weight classes filled the rest of the season. Griffin has gotten down to 106, which opened the door for freshman Caleb Pollack at 113. Pollack won his match in a technical fall at 5:11 with the score 19-2.

"We're solid where we're at right now," Von Haden said. "I think we have our guys where we want them."

The Timberwolves return home Thursday, Jan. 10 for an MVC dual against Sparta in a match that will likely determine second place in the MVC. The junior varsity matches start at 6:15 p.m. followed by the varsity at 7:15 p.m.

High school wrestling: La Crosse Aquinas ends drought against Sparta

The Aquinas High School wrestling team took care of business and beat Sparta in an MVC dual for the first time since 2005 on Thursday.

The Blugolds beat the Spartans 37-27 at the Reinhart Athletic Complex and won eight matches in the dual to get the victory.

Aquinas, which completed a 3-2 conference season, last beat Sparta by a 40-30 score on Feb. 1, 2005. Sparta coach Jared Rickert picked up a pin in that dual, but it came in the final match (135 pounds), and the Blugolds had already clinched the victory.

Freshman Joe Penchi (21-2) picked up a pin at 126, and junior Noah DeGroot (16-6) won by major decision at 195 for Aquinas, which had lost 13 straight duals to Sparta before Thursday.

Freshmen Jack Christenson (106) and Jack Gauger (113), junior Zach DeGroot (145), freshman Riley Klar (152), freshman Dylan Halvorson (160) and senior Robert Uehling (182) also won for Aquinas. Christenson, Gauger and Halvorson all won by pin.

Vince Polhamus improved to 25-10 with a pin at 132, Luke Wendorf is 12-5 after winning at 170, and Garet Pfaff is 22-8 after getting a pin at 220 for Sparta.

Rochester Century Invitational

ROCHESTER, Minn. — Aquinas freshman Joe Penchi won the 126-pound championship by following a bye with a pin, major decision and decision. He advanced to the final with a 9-0 victory, then beat Jackson County Central's Mathew Mohning 6-0.

High school sports roundup: La Crosse Aquinas wrestling team wins regional title

The Blugolds advanced 12 from Saturday's WIAA Division 3 Aquinas Regional to next weekend's individual sectional at Mineral Point, Wis. They will also wrestle as a group against Riverdale in a team sectional semifinal at Fennimore, Wis., on Tuesday. The winner of that dual meets either top-ranked Fennimore or Pecatonica/Argyle immediately afterward to determine a team state qualifier.

Aquinas, which won the regional at the Reinhart Athletic Complex with 261 points, had six regional champs led by freshman Joe Penchi (27-2) at 120 pounds. Penchi pinned North Crawford/Seneca's Beau Jelinek in 1 minute, 25 seconds for the title.

Jack Christenson (106, 14-10), Ian Kaczmarowski (152, 12-14), Riley Haag (170, 7-7), Noah DeGroot (195, 21-7) and Clay Berra (285, 8-15) also won championships for Aquinas.

De Soto had three champions in Aiden Brosinski (126, 29-4), Alex Scoville (138, 23-11) and Cezar Garcia (182, 21-11). Cashton's Tristin Grant (20-11) won at 145.

High school wrestling: Clay Berra, Joe Penchi head to state for La Crosse Aquinas

Clay Berra admits to a confidence issue when it comes to his participation with the Aquinas High School wrestling team.

He walked into Mineral Point High School last weekend as a WIAA Division 3 sectional qualifier with the belief that his junior season was coming to an end.

Berra hadn't won the kind of matches that made becoming a 285-pound state qualifier a valid thought in his head. In fact, he had won only eight while losing 16.

"I wasn't thinking about state at all," Berra said on Tuesday. "I honestly thought I'd go there and go 0-and-2."

But he didn't, and Berra will be one of three qualifiers from city schools — Aquinas freshman Joe Penchi and Logan/Central freshman Dylan Ellefson are the others — competing at the Kohl Center this weekend as part of the individual state tournament.

Berra takes an 11-17 record into a first-round match against Stratford senior Dylan Schoenherr (44-3) in Thursday's 7:15 p.m. session. Schoenherr is ranked third in the state and placed second at the Bi-State Classic at the La Crosse Center in December.

Berra

Berra won one match at Bi-State, and that's all he had to win during a regional meet hosted by Aquinas the week before sectionals. Berra was going to the sectional whether he won that match or not, but the pin in the title match didn't give him hope to get to Madison.

"I wanted to get to sectionals," Berra said, "but state was never in my mind."

Berra then recorded three pins and was only stopped short of a sectional championship because he was pinned during a semifinal match he was leading.

"It was incredible," Aquinas coach Deke Stanek said with a smile on his face. "You sometimes see kids at state with records like his, and you know it's because they wrestled well and put it together on the right day."

"That's what he did, and it was great that something like that could happen for one of our guys."

Berra advanced by perfecting — in a pretty small window — a body lock that kept him in control of matches. But even though he had already pinned two opponents, Berra was left with disbelief at his accomplishment after pinning New Lisbon's Joshua Woggon (32-11) in 3 minutes, 48 seconds to secure third place and a spot in the state bracket.

“Coming back from being pinned was huge because that’s not easy to do,” Stanek said. “But you could see the confidence build when he took care of business in the consolation and won the third-place match.

“Our job as coaches after he lost was to build him back up, and he did it.”

The bus ride home gave Berra plenty of time to reflect, but it wasn’t sinking in quickly.

“There were a lot of, ‘How did I get to state?’ thoughts (on the way home),” Berra said. “Everybody was so excited for me.”

Penchi

Penchi (31-3), a sectional runner-up at 120, was one of those teammates. He was excited to qualify in his first attempt, too, but watching Berra to it, he said, was a lot of fun.

“It was awesome to see him make it,” said Penchi, who won a regional title but didn’t place while going 3-2 in his first Bi-State. “I got chills after his last match.”

Penchi has provided his share of big moments throughout his first season with the Blugolds.

Stanek had high expectations for Penchi after the kind of success he enjoyed in youth wrestling, but applying that knowledge and experience on a new level was going to be a challenge.

“We knew when he was in seventh and eighth grade that we had a solid kid on our hands,” Stanek said. “He was a little raw and green to everything this year because it was new, but he has really worked hard and honed his skills.”

Penchi’s losses have come to Portage’s Jessie Tijerina and Eastview’s Roman Gilbert at the Bi-State and to Fennimore’s Mason Lull in the sectional final. Tijerina is ranked second at 126 in Division 1 and Lull is third at 120 in Division 3, where he is three spots ahead of Penchi.

“Bi-State was big for him because when you wrestle that kind of competition, you get exposed and are forced to work on specific things,” Stanek said. “He learned a lot there.”

Penchi said the Bi-State opened his eyes and made him take conditioning more seriously.

“I had to work on my stance and get in better shape,” Penchi said. “Those two things and working better in neutral position were what I had to get better at.”
